

DEPARTMENT OF MASTER OF COMPUTER APPLICATIONS

One Day Intellectual Property Rights Programme on

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND COMPUTER SOFTWARE

The Department of Master of Computer Applications organized a One Day Intellectual Property Rights Programme on “Intellectual Property Rights and Computer Software” on 14th July 2015. The target group was Faculty from SVEC.

Dr. K. Delhi Babu, Vice-Principal, SVEC, emphasized on various intellectual property types including patents, trademarks, copyrights, legal hurdles surrounding computer software and its place in the intellectual property arena, brief legislative history of the various areas of intellectual property and trends for the future in the area of intellectual property.

Dr. K. Delhi Babu, Vice-Principal, SVEC, Delivering the Lecture on Intellectual Property Rights and Computer Software

The main objective of this programme is to focus on computer technology which has influenced and changed the traditional issues of property rights. According to Dr. K. Delhi Babu discussion, it is essential for every Software Developer to have a firm grasp of intellectual property rights and how they apply to the Software Industry.