

Report on Industry oriented Expert Lecture on “Ameliorations in Internet of Things (IOT)”

The event started sharp at 10.00 AM in Dasari auditorium by Dr. P. Venkata Ramana, Head of the department addressing the participants about the importance of the event. The participants for the expert lecture were 520 students from III B. Tech and IV B. Tech of ECE. The Resource person Sri. Alladi Venkata Srikumar, Addl General Manager, STR-BSNL, Tirupati was introduced by Mr. R. Nagendra, Assistant Professor(SL), Dept. of ECE.

The resource person took over the first session at 10:15 AM discussing overview, various scenarios and developments which made Internet of Things possible. He presented the enabling technologies which paved the way for IoT development in India. The first session ended at 12.15 noon with the support for BSNL towards IoT activities.

The second session started after the lunch at 2.15 PM. In this session IoT projections, , various connectivity models, Market and research scenarios were discussed. Resource person concluded the presentation projecting research avenues and challenges available for students to carry out further research in the domain. Students interacted with the resource person clarifying their queries related to IoT Technologies. The afternoon session closed at 4.45 PM by Mr. R. Nagendra expressing the vote of thanks.

The snapshots covering various phases of the event are:

Sri Alladi Venkata Srikumar, Resource person of the Lecture being laurelled by Dr.P.V. Ramana, HOD, ECE

Resource Person presenting IoT-Enabling technologies.

Resource person interacting with participants.

Resource person clarifying queries of Student participants