

Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering

Expert Lecture on “Latest trends in Mobile Communications”

Under TEQIP-II

On 21-08-2014 from 09:00 AM to 01:30 PM in Auditorium

Sri J. Vishnu Kumar, Manager, Ericsson, Specialist in Network Engineering, delivered lecture on “Latest trends in Mobile Communications”. He explained about evaluation of different generations 2G, 3G and 4G of mobile communications.

He discussed about present trends in Mobile Communications. His lecture enlightened the gathering on the architectures of 2G, 3G and 4G. His presentation also discussed different opportunities for engineering students in Mobile Communications. The lecture was very interactive and informative.

Targeted group: UG Students of ECE, SVEC.

Introduction of Resource Person to Participants

Participants Listening to the Resource Person Sri J. Vishnu Kumar