

A REPORT ON
“ORIENTATION PROGRAM ON INDUSTRY NEEDS- A TECHNICAL SKILL DEVELOPMENT APPROACH”
13.07.2017

An orientation program on industry needs – a technical skill development approach was conducted in the Dasari Auditorium on 13th July, 2017. Mr Jeba Rajesh, Sr. Manager , Michelin Learning & Development, Chennai delivered a talk with the students of Mechanical Engineering.

Mr Jeba Rajesh, Sr. Manager , Michelin Learning & Development, Chennai

Mr.Rajesh enlightened students with inputs required for an industry as on today.Rajesh informed the students to acquire more skills pertaining to the laboratories. Further, Mr.Rajesh emphasized on the programs being conducted at Michelin Tyres, Chennai.

He also explained the importance of time management that helps to the students to improve their efficiency with less effort; he discussed the same with few case studies. Mr.Rajesh explained the importance of Engineering Workshop practice, Machine tools, Pneumatics, Hydraulic, Mechatronics. And also he stated that, these technologies are becoming for a students to get a job in the industry.

Michelin team visit to Labs

Finally, the students of Mechanical Engineering got enriched by the interaction with Michelin team members.