

One Day Guest Lecture

on

"Professional Skills for the Workplace"

A Guest lecture was organized by the Department of Mechanical Engineering, Sree Vidyanikethan Engineering College, Tirupati, in collaboration with The Institute of Engineers (India)-IEI on 9th January, 2023 in the Seminar Hall of Mechanical Engineering Department, and the hands-on training was given on Professional Skills for the Workplace. Seventy five students of II B Tech Mechanical Engineering students were attended the program. The head of the Mechanical Engineering department Dr.R Satya Meher invited keynote speaker professor Mohan D Rao. Professional skills are regarded to be of utmost significance for the individual in promoting well-being and goodwill.

Professor Mohan D Rao speaking on Professional Skills for the Workplace

In leading to effective growth and development, in carrying out one's job duties in a well-organized manner. This skills enables the individuals to cope with various types of situation. In the present days, all the individuals irrespective of their communities, categories, occupations and backgrounds have recognized the meaning and significance of professional skills and measure to bring improvement in the professional skills for the workplace. Students are able to gain knowledge on professional skills by this event.

Professor Mohan D Rao interacting with the students

By participating through this event the students can develop their skills. They get more awareness in the communication skills, time management skills, they can think better and solve problems, get awareness in team work and collaboration, can be strong in leadership and in oral and written communication skills

Clarification of doubts on Professional Skills up gradation by Professor Mohan D Rao

To the end of the event the students acquired knowledge in:

- Communication skills.
- Teamwork skills.
- Time management.
- Problem-solving skills.
- Creativity.

HOD, ME

Dr. R. SATYA MEHER
Professor & Head
Dept. of Mechanical Engineering
Sree Vidyanikethan Engineering College
TIRUPATI-517 102.